THE SENIOR CLASS
BISHOP McCORT HIGH SCHOOL
JOHNSTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

COVER STUDIO
504 Main St., Johnstown, Pa.
Dial 536-5189

FOREWORD

With the "new look" in society of growing boys and girls, or modern teenagers, a glance back at the man who made Bishop McCort High School a reality has made us stop and re-evaluate our Educational Institution. Our Annual which reviews our intellectual, spiritual, and spirited activities, is a reminder to us of the greatness of the man, Bishop John J. McCort, who made all of this possible. His dreams of youth, who are trained in every aspect of human endeavor, encouraged to develop a sense of values, and lead to an understanding of what faith and morals are to mean to them, can be seen in every page. We want our book to be a reflection of these dreams, a reality. We know that especially after the book is closed on our four years in our Alma Mater we will also dream of what has been, and pray that what was started, the good seed, may grow in our hearts. We remember our Bishop always in prayer.

REVEREND RICHARD HOVANEK, PRINCIPAL

Maturity comes with age and experience. It presupposes a mind trained to look at an institution and its students and to see beneath every external cover, the nature and value of the organization and the type of mind and aspiration of the student. This is not easy and neither are all insights correct. However, understanding allows for error. It is not stopped in its effort to uphold and stabilize the organization, and more important, the individual.

This is a principal's job and Father Hovanec, our principal, is most qualified to fill this role.

"We are grateful to you, Father. We shall always remember you!"

Class of '68

Reverend James F. Bunn, Vice-principal

Arranging schedules, substituting for the faculty, checking the cafeteria, patrolling the halls, helping students, etc., these are some of the many responsibilities of our very capable Vice-principal, Father Bunn.

We appreciate the time and energy Father has spent at the task of maintaining the standards of the school.

"Thank you, Father, and God bless you."

Class of '68

Important people making important announcements.

Rev. James F. Schuster, Superintendent of Schools

Leading and advising, counseling and directing, interviewing and placing, in addition to conducting tests, alerting students to scholarship opportunities, etc., these tasks and many others are the concern of our guidance counselor, Sister Hilda Marie.

"Priests of the Lord,
bless the Lord."

RELIGIOUS

"Spirits and souls
of the just,
bless the Lord."

SCHOLASTIC

ACADEMIC

"Let everything
that has breath,
praise the Lord."

"You sons of men,
bless the Lord."

ATHLETIC

INVOLVEMENT

"Guide our feet
into the way of peace."

Wouldn't the Bishop smile
on the shared fun
and strong friendships of his students?

HAWAIIAN MOONLIGHT

The romantic Hawaiian background provides an appropriate atmosphere for Carol and Danny, who seem to be more interested in each other.

Prom night — formal but fun.

The class of '68 held its junior-senior Prom on May 3, 1967 at Green Gables. "Hawaiian Moonlight", with its romantic tropical setting, provided hours of enchantment and memories.

Sue and George prepare to keep the memory of this moonlit evening in a portrait by Cover.

Chaperoning the prom were: Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Maslo, Mrs. Maschak, Mr. Webb, Mr. Maslo, Mrs. Sherman, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Maschak.

Unforgettable friends, cool candlelight, lingering pine scent, indelible fun — our Wonderland by Night.

On December 29, 1967 the senior class held the annual Christmas Dance at the Masonic Temple. With its soft Christmas atmosphere, the dance lived up to its theme — "Wonderland by Night."

George Robak, Al Page, Victor Bako, Charles Allendorfer, and Joseph Reiser, members of the Athletic Association get together at the annual banquet.

Mike Valcheff puts the Crushers two points closer to victory No. 15.

Bill Choby again displays his ability on the boards.

Led by high-scorer Jerry McDevitt and play-maker Jim Stephens the Crusher varsity cagers have again come up with an outstanding team of hustlers. The season started with a victory at Conemaugh, and two of the more notable wins came against Johnstown and Guilfoyle. It has been a fine season, and the '68 McCortmen will go down in the record books as one of the school's greatest teams.

Jim Stephens seems to be questioning his next move.

Bill Choby leaps high for the tap against Jim Hanak of Richland.

Joe Little drives for two against Everett Southern.

Byrd's eye view of the game.

OUR CREW IN ACTION

Mike Valcheff passes to Bill Choby for the easy layup.

Members of the Athletic Association dining at the McCort Sports Banquet.

Joe Little swishes two in the game against Everett Southern.

Memories '68, on behalf of the faculty, students, and especially the athletes, would like to thank the Athletic Association for their support. Without this group of men it is doubtful whether Bishop McCort could have a sports program at all. From summer camp in football until the end of baseball, these men constantly give their time for the good of our boys. With such untiring efforts on the part of these men, the Bishop McCort theme in years to come, will continue to be, "We're Number 1."

JUNIOR VARSITY

The '68 edition of Junior Varsity basketball at McCort appeared as a bright preliminary to each varsity contest. One could always come early and see a thrilling display of basketball. Under the close supervision of Mr. Martynuska, the Junior Crushers have molded a fine team. This team will surely deliver outstanding performers for the varsity.

J.V. Coach, Ray Martynuska, and Freshman Coach, Don Ferrell, at the Sports Banquet.

With great spirit and a tremendous will to win, the LITTLE CRUSHERS have copped the INTER-COUNTY LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP for the first time in the history of the league. Outstanding teamwork and aggressive play enabled the Frosh to defeat Roosevelt Junior High for the title. Having achieved these goals through the leadership of COACH FERRELL, these boys will make the varsity basketball picture at McCort a bright one in the years to come.

GOLF

The 1967 golf season at BMHS ended on a winning note as the school golfers won the Wheeling Tournament at Sunnehanna Country Club. Len Lubinsky '67, was the medalist in the tournament with a score of 148 over 36 holes. The day ended with a fine banquet in the club dining room. Pictures of the Crushers were taken for TV and newspaper, and Dr. Wheeling, chairman, gave his comments. In all it was a fine day.
